

New Scenario

New Scenario is a dynamic platform for conceptual, time based and performative exhibition formats that happen outside the realm of the white cube (physical and digital) and is meant to function as an extension to create new contextual meaning.

New Scenario was founded by the artists Paul Barsch and Tilman Hornig in late 2014.